

Secular Passover Blessings

This can be recited as we light the candles to begin the Passover Seder and to celebrate the arrival of spring:

Blessed is the light in the world.
Blessed is the light within humanity.
Blessed is the light of Passover.

BAROOKH HA-OR BA-OLAM.
BAROOKH HA-OR BA-ADAM.
BAROOKH HA-OR BA-PESAKH.

בְּרוּךְ הָאוֹר בְּעוֹלָם.
בְּרוּךְ הָאוֹר בְּאָדָם.
בְּרוּךְ הָאוֹר בַּפֶּסַח.

This can be recited before the Matzah, Maror, and Haroset:

We marvel at the power of the earth renewed.
We marvel at the beauty of the earth reborn.

B'ROOKHA ADAMA B'FIRYA OOV'TOOVA.
B'ROOKHA ADAMA B'KHOL OD TIFARTA.

בְּרוּכָה אֲדָמָה בְּפִרְיָהּ וּבְטוֹבָהּ.
בְּרוּכָה אֲדָמָה בְּכָל עוֹד תְּפָאֲרֶתָהּ.

If these blessings are different or new to you:
Judaism is a constantly evolving conversation, practice, and identity.
These texts have been used by tens of thousands of Jewish Households over the past fifty years.

Secular Humanistic Judaism celebrates Jewish history, culture, holidays, and lifecycle events through a human-centered philosophy of life. Learn more at www.SHJ.org.

Society for Humanistic Judaism

For more information or to get involved, please contact:

Paul Golin
Executive Director

paulgolin@shj.org
(248) 478-7610

